

Office of Assistant Treasurer A. S.,

Boston, Mass.,

July 29, 1891.

Hon. O. C. Bobbysell,

Supt. U. S. Mint,

Phila. Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of ~~now~~ just concerning the counterfeit gold dollar, the value of which, forty-seven cents, you remitted to me, I have to state, that in order that I might reply to your inquiry, as to its history, I have waited to see the party that presented it. I learn that this coin was one of eight or more, that were given to him at odd times by his father. On offering them to a broker for sale, this particular coin was rejected. To ascertain if it was genuine, it was presented at this office, and pronounced a counterfeit. The counter of the party was obtained, to submit the same to you, and we thus have the result.

With thanks for your attention. I am

Very Respectfully
M. Remond
Asst Treas U.S.

999

RG104 E-1 Box 168

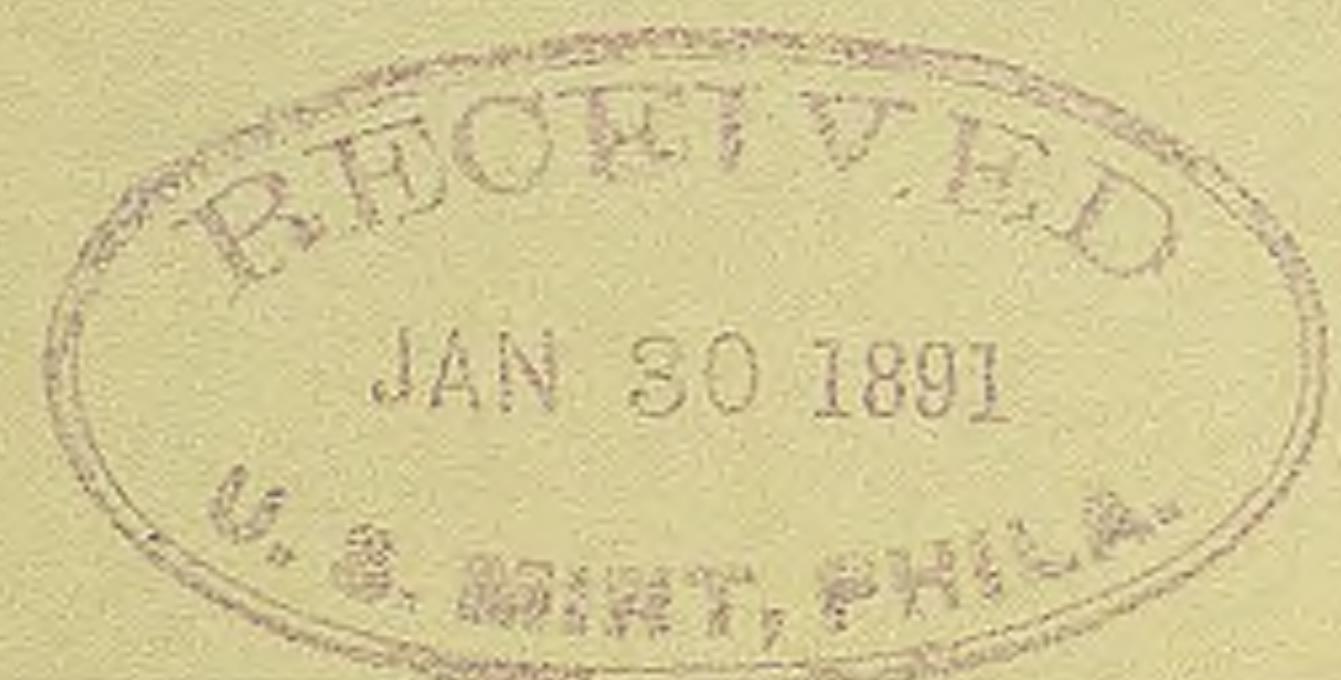

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,
Boston, Mass.,

January 29, 1891.

H. P. Keenan
Assistant Treasurer U. S.

SUBJECT:

History of the counterfeiting
gold dollar.

No. of Inclosures,

[Abstract:] History of the counterfeit gold dollar.

Office of Assistant Treasurer U.S.,
Boston, Mass.,
January 29, 1891

Hon. O.C. Bosbyshell
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Phila., Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of 22nd inst. concerning the counterfeit gold dollar, the value of which, forty-seven cents, you remitted to me. I have to state that in order that I might reply to your inquiry, as to its history. I have waited to see the party that presented it. I learn that this coin was one of eight or more that were given to him at odd times by his father. On offering them to a broker for sale, this particular coin was rejected. To ascertain if it was a genuine, it was presented at this office, and pronounced a counterfeit. The consent of the party was obtained to submit the coin to you, and with thus have the result. With thanks for your attention, I am

Very Respectfully
M.P. Kennan
Asst. Treas. U.S.